NAVIGATING POLITICAL REGULATION JUST GOT EASIER

Chalmers & Adams - Providing Peace of Mind in a Complex World

The political process is a complicated business. Chalmers & Adams can help you successfully navigate the patchwork of federal and state regulations that apply to your activities. We take care of the law so that you can focus on your goals.

Is Someone Waiting For You to Make a Mistake?

The regulation of political activities at all levels has increased in recent years. It is common for compliance or noncompliance with the rules to become a hot political issue. Penalties can be harsh, harming both reputations and finances. Our lawyers know that political law is as much about politics as it is about the law, and our advice takes both into account. We can help you stay in compliance with the rules and keep your news headlines positive, but we are there to defend you aggressively if and when necessary.

Flat Fee Political Compliance

Chalmers & Adams provides clients with unique and cost-effective solutions. We offer many of our services for a flat fee, which includes entity creation, ongoing advice, and legal defense. You pay a simple, cost-effective flat fee for a highly credentialed attorney to manage all of your legal activities. We can also prepare disclosure reports, providing the benefit of a one-stop shop for your compliance and regulatory needs.

TYPICAL COMPLIANCE PROGRAM

DESIGN: After reviewing your goals and risk tolerance, we build the right strategy and prepare the organizational documents to create and register your entity. We put in place legal compliance programs from day one.

DIRECT: We provide advice on the daily decisions that impact your compliance. We also offer proactive insights on legal or rule changes that may affect you or your activities.

DISCLOSE: We can prepare and/or review your federal and state disclosures. We can also review previously filed disclosure reports to identify issues before your opposition does.

DEFEND: If a problem does arise, we are ready to react quickly and aggressively on your behalf. We like to win, and we have an excellent record representing clients before the Federal Election Commission, state ethics commissions, and other regulatory agencies. We have years of experience in high-profile cases, and we can help your staff deal with media issues and scrutiny.

The Right Mix of Law and Politics

Political law is as much about the business of politics as it is about the law. You need to choose a firm that has experience in both. Our attorneys have more than 50 years combined experience supporting clients at the federal and state level.

Our attorneys have advised and represented a variety of high-profile entities, candidates, and/or public officials, including:

- President, Vice President, U.S. Senator, and U.S. Representative

- PACs and super PACs
- 501(c) exempt organizations and advocacy groups
- Trade associations and state and regional chambers of commerce
